Universities Caribbean (formerly UWCIB) is the newly reconstituted Association of Caribbean Universities and University Institutes. The aim of the Association has been cooperation among the Higher Education Institutions in the Caribbean region. The Association embraces Caribbean as the geographical area comprising those of the Antilles and some areas of mainland surrounding the Caribbean Sea and Gulf of Mexico, including Central America and the Northern region of South America and the Solomons.

Its prime function is being an Association that acknowledges the international, intellectual and transnational character of the region. The Association together partners the best of the Association to face the opportunities and challenges and positioned to compete on the global stage.

Universities Caribbean encourages cooperative activities through mutual advice and shared benefits, and also to be the Caribbean representative in the areas of quality, globalisation, evidence, and financial sustainability. The general member gives Universities Caribbean to to improve the regional university sector and enhance its quality and regional impact.

We want to be able to offer all our Members an array of opportunities on quality, especially in the areas of research, teaching, and quality. The Association's new strategic plan (Tight 6) is a key plan that allows to improve the REPUTATION of the university sector to enhance the RELEVANCE of the member universities and to increase the EFFICIENCY of the member universities and sector.
