

GNLC Webinar: Higher Education Institutions supporting local communities during COVID-19

UNESCO Global Network of Learning Cities, UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning

Date and Time: 15 April 2020, 13:00 to 14:00, Central European Time

Place: GNLC Webinar Online <https://zoom.us/join/9446790006>, Meeting ID: 944 790 0006

Programme

Time	Item
13:00-13:05	Moderator Introduction Ms. Marie Mawardi, Programme Specialist, UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning (UIL) Welcoming remarks Ms. Ezzah Hussein, Programme Specialist, UIL
13:05-13:15	Opening address: Responses of Higher Education Institutions in face of COVID-19 Mr. Francisco Pedro, Director, UNESCO International Institute for Higher Education in Latin America and the Caribbean (UNESCO-IIEALC)
13:15- 13:25	The American University in Cairo: Supporting local communities and promoting lifelong learning during COVID-19 Mr. Mostaf Zaki, Professor of Practice, Director of the Graduate School of Education, Middle East Institute of Higher Education, The American University in Cairo, Egypt
13:25-13:35	University of Glasgow: Supporting local communities during COVID-19 in the context of a learning city Mr. Mike Osborne, Professor - Chair of Adult and Lifelong Education, Deputy Director of the Social Innovation Laboratory, University of Glasgow, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
13:35- 13:45	Bahir Dar University: Supporting local communities during COVID-19 in the context of a learning city Mr. Abay Menden Giese, Lecturer and Community Service Director, Department of Adult Education and Community Development, Bahir Dar University, Ethiopia
13:45- 13:45	Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile: Supporting local communities and promoting lifelong learning during COVID-19 Mr. Patricia Gomez, Provost for Managerial Institutional Affairs, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, Chile
13:45- 14:00	Questions and answers followed by closing remarks