

Tell UNESCO IESALC your story – #LearningNeverStops

LEARNING NEVER STOPS

Universities and institutions of higher education around the world have closed down massively because of the COVID-19 virus. UNESCO IESALC extends an invitation to students and teachers to tell how they cope with this situation and how they have been able to ensure continuity of learning. Their answers will be a source of inspiration for those who are struggling to continue their education and learning at this time. Some tips follow.

Questions for students (please say your first name, age, career of study, city and country)

- How do you feel about not being at the university?
- What do you miss the most about your university?
- How are you keeping up with your classes?
- What do you want to say to the people who are watching this video?

Questions for professors (please say your first name, the career that you teach, city and country)

- How do you feel about not being at the university?
- What do you miss the most about your university?
- How are you helping your students keep up with their classes?
- What do you want to say to the people who are watching this video?
- Share your top three tips with other teachers who are trying to teach their students at home.

Tips for recording your video (60 seconds maximum)

1. Record in a well-lighted place, making sure the person who's going to speak isn't in the shade.
2. Test the sound. Film for a few seconds and listen to the video to make sure the sound was good. If it isn't, get closer to the person. Make sure there are no noises around you or other people speaking at the same time.
